

Seminar on Expansion of Business Operation to Indonesia

The recent US-China trade dispute has posed a business crisis to Hong Kong manufacturers which operate in Mainland China as they have to bear the cost from the raise tariff. Indonesia, being the 4th largest population in the world with a continuous GDP growth in the past 10 years, it is perhaps an ideal new markets for Hong Kong companies to consider relocating or expanding their manufacturing business.

Hong Kong Productivity Council (HKPC) will organise a series of seminars with the aim to offer information and useful tips on setting up manufacturing operation in Indonesia. HKPC is honored to have the representatives from Consulate General of The Republic of Indonesia in Hong Kong and PT. Bank Negara Indonesia (Persero) Tbk to speak on the economic outlook and investment opportunities in Indonesia.

Experts from Accountant firm and Hong Kong manufacturers operating in Indonesia are also invited to speak on relevant topics.

Date: 25 April 2019, Thursday

Time: 14:30 – 17:30

(Registration will be started at 14:00)

Venue: SME One, G/F, HKPC Building, 78 Tat Chee Avenue, Kowloon, Hong Kong
